Houston, Texas, July 5.--Senator J.
W. Bailey arrived in Houston this morning from Washington and Gainesville and spent the day discussing state politics with political leaders who are known to be favorable to either Mr. Colquitt or Judge Poindexter. When interviewed tonight he said he intended to go to Calvert tomorrow, but declined to say for what purpose or what would be his course during the balance of the governatorial campaign.

His intended visit to Calvert tomorrow is regarded as significant here, in view of the fact that Judge Poindexter is scheduled to speak at that

Our JULY SALE of Men's and Boys CLOTHING

Which was started on the first of this month is proving successful far beyond our expectations.
We, of course, expected to do a lively business in the face of the extremely low prices we made in our clothing department, but hardly expected the tremendous selling we experienced on the start off. We were fortunate in another way too --that is by selling a great variety of suits as well as a great number--thereby keeping our assortment intact--which enables us to offer you the same great variety now as we did on the first day.
This is the way the political campaign. He was surrounded tonight in the lobby of the Rice Hotel by supporters of both Judge Poin Dexter and Railroad Commissioner Colquitt, but the Colquitt supporters predominated.

During the day Senator Bailey visited Judge William Masterson, who has been suffering from some nervous trouble for several weeks. Judge Masterson is one of his warmest supporters, and Senator Bailey wired him from Washington several days ago that he was coming to Houston. Judge Masterson left Houston tonight after a long conversation with Senator Bailey for Battle Creek, Mich., where he hopes to regain his health.
